

The children of Benjamin Franklin McKenzie and Mary Alexander McKenzie were:

James Sebastian was born July 26, 1846 and died between 1900 and 1904. At age 18 he volunteered to serve in the Army of the Civil War. From the records at the Archives it was learned that he was of ruddy complexion, had black hair and hazel eyes and was 5'5" tall. According to family stories, he was shot off his horse and hit his head on a stone. The only official medical records found state he was "sick or wounded." Some notes from the records are attached. His military records show he was in and out of hospitals. Helen MacKenzie Shaffer recalls that he and his wife Sally made their home on Frederick Street in Cumberland and they had at least two children, Maggie and Bernadette. A Special Census of 1890 of Civil War Veterans and their widows, Page 6 SD 3 En.D. 5 of Allegany County shows:

McKenzie, James S. Private Military record unknown.
Hendricks, widow of Sylvan Retreat, Cumberland, Md.
Disability: Scare cut on head. Confined in Sylvan Retreat.

And the 1900 census indicates "James S. McKenzie, White male Allegany County. District 5, Sylvan Retreat - Inmate." This is found in Vol. I 132, 1, 25. It is assumed he died between the time of this record and prior to the death of his father in 1904.

Harriet was born February 2, 1848 and died at age thirteen on January 20, 1861, four months before the birth of her half-brother Charles.

John Frank (b. Feb. 2, 1850) and his wife lived in Barton and had a large family. There were several sons who worked in the coal mines with him and at least one daughter, Rosie. He died after his brother in 1926.

Mary Martha (b. Dec. 23, 1852) married Thomas Price Llewelyn (b. July 11, 1851 - d. April 1, 1924) on February 19, 1874. They lived at Dan's Rock, the highest point in the Cumberland area. It is said they would watch for company and have dinner on the table when they arrived. There was a cool water spring on their property and coal to burn. Martha passed on December 23, 1936. There were six children from this union.
