

The United States of America

United States District Court

Present, THE HON. JAMES W. LOCKE, Judge.

Southern District of Florida

By Charles W. Mann 3rd 1892

Now Comes

J.anning Barrow

Esq., and in open Court moves for the admission of

Robert Barry

a subject of Great Britain to CITIZENSHIP and it appearing to the Court by the testimony of

and Robert Barry that the said Robert Barry has resided within the United States during the last five years, and for the year last passed has resided within the State of Florida, and that he made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States, according to the statute, more than two years since, and that he is over twenty-one years of age, and is in all other respects entitled to become a naturalized citizen. It is therefore ordered that the said Robert Barry be allowed to take the oath of allegiance to the United States and become a CITIZEN thereof.

WHEREUPON the said Robert Barry takes the oath of allegiance required by law, and is admitted and adjudged to be a Naturalized Citizen of the United States of America.
